

2011 Holiday Newsletter

Happy Holidays to everyone!

We hope your Holidays are filled with love, peace and joy. We have a large selection of items that would make great gifts for that someone special! Or, if you don't know what they need for their life's journey, we also offer gift cards.

Just in time for the Holidays, as you can see from the photos below, we have expanded our display space allowing us to add more candles, Angel items, essential oils and books! So come on in and check it out!

Don't forget we have relaxing CDs, crystals and stones to help a person's energy field, jewelry to inspire and books to educate and guide someone on their life path. We also have original paintings and prints of Dolores' Healing Art and almost everything is now also available through our online store at www.MagoHealingArts.com.

We are already planning our new year activities which include a Fair here at the Center (we are borrowing the space next door to allow more healers to participate) called NEW YEAR, NEW YOU on Saturday, January 7th, 2012 from 1 - 5 pm. We'll have psychics, tarot readers, energy healers and free chair massages. Radio station KYOY will be doing a live broadcast from the Center so stop by for some fun, insights into your future and get 2012 off to a great start!

We also have a "Stress Management" Class scheduled for February 25th, a "Drum Making" Class on March 3rd and "Your Angel Connection" class with Erin Murray on March 31st. For a full list of classes and other event information please check out our website.

When you next come in please welcome our new part-time helper, Deeanna. She has great knowledge of crystals and stones as well as being a Reiki Master.

We are planning our 3rd "Prayer for Peace" on December 31st at 2pm - please join us for meditation and prayer aimed at promoting peace around the World and here at home in Cheyenne. Our hope is that if we all work together we CAN save the Earth and bring more love, peace and compassion to the World!

Thank you for your support during 2011. We hope to see you many 2012 as it sounds like it is going to be an exciting year!

Happy Holidays and Joyous New Year!
